Dr. Andreas Schwingshackl Is The Division Chief Of Pediatric Critical Care At UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital

"Everything we do at the bedside today is so highly technical. All our tests are molecular; if we don't keep up with the research, we won't know which tests should be ordered to answer a specific question, and we won't understand the test results."

Craig Albanese, M.D., Executive Vice President And Chief Operating Officer Of Duke University Health System

"Another 'A' grade from Leapfrog demonstrates our team's commitment to patient safety and providing the highest level of care at all three of our hospitals. Our team's hard work contributes to Duke's reputation as a world-class health system."

Gianrico Farrugia, M.D., president and CEO of Mayo Clinic

"Mayo Clinic has a 160-year history of leading the world in healthcare innovation. As part of our Bold. Forward. strategy, we have a once-in-three generations opportunity to redefine the future of healthcare,"

Tom Mihaljevic, M.D., CEO and President of Cleveland Clinic

"This unique collaboration leverages Cleveland Clinic's expertise in biomedical research and clinical care with Canon's global leadership in imaging innovation and precision manufacturing,"
